

PEACE

When Jesus was preparing to leave his disciples, he promised them peace. After he told them he was going to leave them, he said:

“I have said this to you, so that in me you have peace. In the world you face persecution. But take courage, I have conquered the world!”
(John 16:33)

Peace isn't a feeling, it's a person: Jesus. The Prince of Peace. Even though Jesus isn't with us in the same physical way he was with his disciples 2,000 years ago, his Holy Spirit is always with us. We experience peace when we experience Jesus.

Think about how it looks to walk in Jesus this week. As we head into another week in lockdown, what could it look like to walk in his presence and to see Jesus “walk into our living room”?

Scripture promises peace as part of our salvation through Jesus. Take some time this week to reflect/discuss biblical promises about peace. Could there be someone you can encourage with one of these promises? Maybe a phone call or a text message?

- Judges 6:2
- Psalm 23, 29:11
- Isaiah 9:6-7
- Ezekiel 37:26
- Romans 5:1
- Ephesians 2:14

...are some great ones to start with...

Think about/share times where you have experienced the peace of Jesus in times of uncertainty. If you've experienced peace over recent times, take the courage to reach out to someone who may be needing peace- testimonies are powerful!

Just like the disciples in John 20, let's see Jesus walk into living rooms this week!
